Dear John:

Just a short note that we have arrived safely. You and the others who helped to load the truck did an excellent job in that there was a minimal amount of damage. The worst was the sheared casters from the big sofa. You literally must take responsibility for my physical presence at George Mason today. We are now at the stage of starting to hang up pictures so that we are making slow but sure progress. Hope all is well with you. Please remember us to all our friends.

Thank you again for your physical demonstration of the true meaning of friendship.

Cordially,
